Adoption Policies (2008 Version)

Adopters must be at least 18 years of age.

Renters must have written permission from landlords.

Cats will not be adopted to a second party, or as a gift.

Cats will not be adopted for the sole purpose of hunting and/or mousing.

Cats will not be released for research of any kind.

We require all cats to be spayed/neutered and be current on vaccinations.

We strongly encourage a health exam for your cat(s) to establish a relationship with your veterinarian.

To the best of our knowledge, only healthy cats and kittens are placed for adoption. Any health or treatment history will be disclosed. However, we take no responsibility for illness, injury or death of any feline adopted.
